This season marks our first without our beloved founder David DiChiera, whose passing in September marked the end of a distinguished and notable era for Michigan Opera Theatre (MOT). Among his many visionary acts, he determined in the mid-1990s that the newly-formed Detroit Opera House would also serve as a venue for dance. Since that time, numerous dance presentations have taken place in Detroit under the auspices of MOT, making it one of the few opera companies in the nation to also offer a dance program.

For more than 25 years, the MOT dance program has grown dramatically, including presentations by companies such as American Ballet Theatre, Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, Ballet Hispanico, Joffrey Ballet, Dance Theatre of Harlem, BalletMet, and numerous others. For the past three years, our organization has partnered with the University Musical Society (UMS) with an expressed goal of working collaboratively to present exceptional dance performances in Southeast Michigan, including the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company this fall and the Martha Graham Dance Company, closing our dance series in April.

For our dance-lovers who are single ticket holders, we invite you to join us for the rest of our dance series with a subscription. As a special offer, you may return tonight’s ticket to have its value applied toward a subscription for the remaining dance season. Please visit the box office or give us a call at (313) 237-7464.

I am pleased to acknowledge the generosity of the following for their support of our dance program:

- Lear Corporation, 2018-19 Dance Season Sponsor
- Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan, principal supporter of the MOT/UMS Dance Initiative for Southeast Michigan
- Joanne, Marvin and Betty Danto Family Foundation, annual supporter of MOT dance series

As we approach the holiday season, we look forward to three annual traditions for you to consider. Beginning Thanksgiving weekend, MOT will present Tchaikovsky’s The Nutcracker, performed by a popular audience favorite, BalletMet. December marks our 17th annual performance of Too Hot to Handel, a beloved jazz gospel version of Handel’s Messiah. Under the baton of Suzanne Mallare Acton, the work is performed by Rackham Choir and members of the MOT Orchestra, joined by jazz artists from the metro Detroit area. In addition, we will also present A Winter Fantasy, featuring our Michigan Opera Theatre Children’s Chorus singing holiday music.

Finally, as we mourn the passing of David DiChiera, join us as we celebrate his spirit through the performances that will take place here at the David DiChiera Center for the Performing Arts.

Best wishes,

Wayne S. Brown
President and CEO, Michigan Opera Theatre

Michigan Opera Theatre has been presenting some of the world’s best dance companies for decades. And, like opera, we strive to offer a balance between exciting new works and beloved classics. This fall, we are excited to present two productions that do just that: The Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company and BalletMet’s The Nutcracker.

While founded in the early 1980s, the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company makes its Detroit Opera House debut in October. The company, known for pushing boundaries, will present A Letter to My Nephew, a powerful, multimedia performance about Jones’ nephew Lance T. Briggs, who struggled with illness and addiction.

On a personal level, I have known Bill since 1992 when I hired him to make his stage directing debut with Kurt Weill’s Lost in the Stars at Boston Lyric Opera. He is a charismatic and born leader who champions diversity of all sorts, be it by race, age or body type.

Later in the fall, Metro Detroit favorite BalletMet returns for a traditional production of Tchaikovsky’s The Nutcracker Thanksgiving weekend. Accompanied by live reindeer, treats and crafts, as well as the Michigan Opera Theatre Orchestra, the performance is a great way to open the holiday season.

The Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company is the first of our dance series celebrating modern dance through generations of the movement. It continues in March with Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, celebrating its 60th anniversary with a program that continues to inspire and empower. The dance series concludes in April with one of the earliest and most iconic modern dance companies in the country: the Martha Graham Dance Company.

Last but not least, we are excited to present a special program this February featuring ballet legend Alessandra Ferri, ranked supremely as one of the few “prima ballerina assolutas” in the world. With The Art of the Pas de Deux, she joins present and former American Ballet Theatre principals, including Herman Cornejo and Jeffrey Cirio, for an evening of romantic duets, just after Valentine’s Day!

As you enjoy your performance, we invite you to join us for other productions in the season as we bring you some of the greatest dancers in the world!

‘Tis the Season for Holiday Performances

Chestnuts roasting on an open fire, turkey with all the fixings and wishing for a white Christmas: every family has its holiday traditions. At Michigan Opera Theatre (MOT), holiday traditions span both dance and opera, with The Nutcracker, Too Hot to Handel and A Winter Fantasy. This year, MOT will add to its holiday roster a production of Amahl and the Night Visitors, an inspiring opera offering a different perspective on the Nativity story that will be performed in select locations throughout Metro Detroit.

MOT’s holiday season opens Thanksgiving weekend with BalletMet’s The Nutcracker for three performances Nov. 24-25. The ballet follows Clara, a young girl who dances through a fantasy land of sweets and fairies with her nutcracker prince. With its familiar music and fairytale setting, The Nutcracker is the most performed ballet in the United States and has been an annual MOT tradition since 2002.

The traditional production features colorful Victorian costumes, dazzling sets, more than 122 characters on stage and Tchaikovsky’s classic score performed live by the MOT Orchestra. The event will also feature the return of a series of complementary family activities, including live reindeer, photos with Santa and the Nutcracker, holiday-themed crafts and treats before the show. Children will also be able to meet the characters on stage during the Sugar Plum Parade following the performance.

“The Nutcracker weekend at the Detroit Opera House is a magical time of year at MOT,” said Dance Coordinator Kim Smith. “With the theater decorated in Christmas trees and lights, in addition to family-friendly performances and activities, it is the perfect way to begin the holiday season.”

MOT’s holiday series continues Dec. 1 with the 17th annual performance of Too Hot to Handel, a jazz gospel rendition of Handel’s Messiah. A uniquely Detroit tradition, the concert features Rackham Choir and members of the MOT Orchestra performing with renowned soloists Rodrick Dixon, Alfreda Burke and Karen Marie Richardson alongside all-star Detroit jazz legends Marion Hayden, Alvin Wadles, and Dave Taylor.

“Too Hot to Handel brings together Detroit’s greatest classical and jazz musicians and powerhouse singers to inspire new audiences every year,” said Rackham Choir Artistic Director Suzanne Mallare Acton. “It’s truly a community celebration, and it remains one of the most uplifting holiday events in Detroit.”

Acton also leads another MOT tradition: A Winter Fantasy, performed Dec. 2 by the Michigan Opera Theatre Children’s Chorus. Founded in 2007, the MOTCC, with children ranging from 8-16 years old, performs opera as well as music from different cultures and traditions. A Winter Fantasy will feature holiday music as well as a silent auction, showcasing some of the region’s best young talent.

Though the Detroit Opera House is the traditional venue for MOT’s holiday series, it isn’t the only place where the company will be performing. MOT will present Amahl and the Night Visitors at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Dec. 9, at Detroit’s Most Holy Redeemer Church Dec. 15 and at the Macomb Center for the Performing Arts Dec. 22. The performances are part of MOT’s commitment to making opera more accessible throughout the region.

The opera tells the story of a miraculous encounter between Amahl, a poor boy with a lame leg, and the Three Kings, on their journey to bestow gifts to the newly-born Christ child. “Amahl and the Night Visitors is a beautiful and ideal opera for children, because the entire work is seen through the eyes of a child,” said MOT Director of External Affairs, Arthur White. “All the beauty, magic and wonder are revealed in this story of faith and love.”

The work was originally commissioned as a way to bring opera to mass audiences. Specifically, the first production of the opera was aired on television by NBC on Dec. 24, 1951 and viewed by an estimated five million people—the largest audience to ever see a televised opera. The production was an instant hit, and became an annual tradition performed by the NBC Opera Theatre from 1951 until 1966. This new production of Menotti’s popular family offering brings the tradition of holiday operas back to Detroit audiences.

Music, performance and art have always been part of holiday traditions, an expression of the joy, forgiveness and love felt throughout the season. It is a time to enjoy favorite annual experiences while also embracing new ones. With a program spanning dance, opera, jazz, gospel and more, MOT’s holiday series offers a variety of experiences, both old and new, to celebrate the season.
Clark Suttle

Being of French heritage, it is fitting that Clark Suttle’s bass is named "Marie Antoinette." It is even more so since the instrument was made in France in 1865 and had its head cut off. Though the bass was refurbished in 1970, Clark jokes he has planned to sell it on and off for the past few decades when it gets temperamental.

“But right before I go to sell it, it starts playing beautifully again,” he said. “I’ve played it so long, it is seasoned to me.”

The bass was a gift from his parents when he was 16 years old, a few years after he had begun playing the instrument and at the onset of a path as a professional musician. Originally from Livonia, Clark continued his studies in Michigan, earning both a bachelor’s and master’s degree in music within the scope of five years at the University of Michigan.

Though he is a bassist, Clark began his career as a conductor. He was associate conductor of Phoenix Symphony and Music Director and Conductor for Monterey Symphony for 13 years and was recently conductor for Rochester Symphony in Michigan. He also held directing and conducting positions at the University of Michigan, Richmond Symphony, Buffalo Philharmonic and Phoenix Ballet.

“The path of a musician is often a varied one, and we do many things in our careers,” he said. “I returned to Michigan for family reasons and was asked to be a substitute bass for MOT in 2000. I took the audition in 2001, and the rest is history.”

In addition to performing, Clark also works as a music editor for Luck’s Music Library in Madison Heights, where he prepares all new editions for Luck’s and Tempo press. Outside of music Clark enjoys tall ships, model building, history, road biking and composing music.

Derek Weller

Michigan Opera Theatre bassist Derek Weller has been playing with the MOT Orchestra for 32 years, serving as principal for 31 of them. But his history as a musician began much earlier.

Derek was introduced to music singing in the boys choir at his church, eventually learning the piano and beginning bass lessons in fifth grade. As his musical training progressed, Derek began spending summers at the Interlochen Center for the Arts, eventually transferring full-time to graduate high school from the Interlochen Arts Academy.

Decades later, Derek now teaches bass at the school, in addition to being a professor of bass at Eastern Michigan University and giving private lessons at his studio in Ann Arbor.

But performing remains a passion for Derek. He frequently performs with the Detroit Symphony as a substitute and has gone on several tours with them. He is also the associate principal of the Carmel Bach Festival, a period ensemble based in Carmel, California. He says he typically plays on the outside edge of the orchestra pit on a stool.

“It allows me to have an excellent view of the stage,” he said. “I enjoy being close to world class artists on stage and this has shaped my musical life.”

Outside of music, Derek enjoys cooking, fine dining, tea from China, Taiwan and Japan, biking, running, cross-country skiing, swimming, yoga and bird watching. He recently celebrated his 25th wedding anniversary with MOT violinist Anna Bittar-Weller.

Program Notes
In the fall of 2015 when I had just started working on the second part of the Analogy Trilogy about my nephew Lance, we received an invitation to perform in France. Instead of bringing a pre-existing work, I decided to use this opportunity to make a site-specific piece. My complicated relationship with my nephew would be a point of entry to reflect on the moment at hand. Our country had erupted in protests that summer, and we were going to a Europe that was struggling with the refugee crisis. It seems that, from the very beginning, the work rubs against the conscience of this era. The night of the opening in Paris was also the night of the Bataclan attack.

A Letter to My Nephew is my attempt to bring together two impulses: the social/political and the deeply personal. Some of the elements on stage - the style of movement, the characters in the street, the walking motif, the house music - came from my trying to imagine a world that my nephew might have inhabited, and to reference a demimonde that I did not know personally but knew it through him. The work is conceived as a kind of postcard sent from uncle to nephew from wherever we are at the moment.

Company History
Over the past 36 years the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company has shaped the evolution of contemporary dance through the creation and performance of over 140 works. Founded as a multicultural dance company in 1982, the company was born of an 11-year artistic collaboration between Bill T. Jones and Arnie Zane. Today, the company is recognized as one of the most innovative and powerful forces in the modern dance world. The company has performed its ever-enlarging repertoire worldwide in over 200 cities in 30 countries on every major continent. In 2011, the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company merged with Dance Theater Workshop to form New York Live Arts of which Bill T. Jones is the Artistic Director and Janet Wong is the Associate Artistic Director.

The repertory of the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company is widely varied in its subject matter, visual imagery and stylistic approach to movement, voice and stagecraft and includes musically driven works as well as works using a variety of texts. Some of its most celebrated creations are evening length works including Last Supper at Uncle Tom’s Cabin/The Promised Land (1990, Next Wave Festival at the Brooklyn Academy of Music); Still/Here (1994, Biennale de la Danse in Lyon, France); We Set Out Early... Visibility Was Poor (1996, Hancher Auditorium, Iowa City, IA); You Walk? (2000, European Capital of Culture 2000,Bolgna, Italy); Blind Date (2006, Peak Performances at Montclair State University); Chapel/Chapter (2006, Harlem Stage Gatehouse); Fondly Do We Hope... Fervently Do We Pray (2009, Ravinia Festival, Highland Park, IL); Another Evening: Venice/Arsenale (2010, La Biennale di Venezia, Venice, Italy); Story/Time (2012, Peak Performances); and A Rite (2013, Carolina Performing Arts at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill). The Company is also currently touring Body Against Body an intimate and focused collection of duet works drawn from the Company’s 36-year history.

Bill T. Jones (Artistic Director/Co-Founder/Choreographer: Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company; Artistic Director: New York Live Arts) is a multi-talented artist, choreographer, dancer, theater director and writer, has received major honors ranging from the Human Rights Campaign’s 2016 Visibility Award, 2013 National Medal of Arts to a 1994 MacArthur “Genius” Award and Kennedy Center Honors in 2010. Mr. Jones was honored with the 2014 Doris Duke Performing Artist Award, recognized as Officier de l’Ordre des Arts et des Lettres by the French government in 2010, inducted into the American Academy of Arts & Sciences in 2009 and named “An Irreplaceable Dance Treasure” by the Dance Heritage Coalition in 2000. His ventures into Broadway theater resulted in a 2010 Tony Award for Best Choreography in the critically acclaimed FELA!, the new musical co-conceived, co-written, directed and choreographed by Mr. Jones. He also earned a 2007 Tony Award for Best Choreography in Spring Awakening as well as an Obie Award for the show’s 2006 Off-Broadway run. His choreography for the off-Broadway production of The Seven earned him a 2006 Lucille Lortel Award.

Mr. Jones began his dance training at the State University of New York at Binghamton (SUNY), where he studied classical ballet and modern dance. After living in Amsterdam, Mr. Jones returned to SUNY, where he became co-founder of the American Dance Asylum in 1973. In 1982 he formed the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company (then called Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane & Company) with his late partner, Arnie Zane. Mr. Jones is currently Artistic Director of New York Live Arts, an organization that strives to create a robust framework in support of the nation’s dance and movement-based artists through new approaches to producing, presenting and educating. For more information, visit http://www.newyorklivearts.org/.

Arnie Zane (Co-Founder/Choreographer) (1948-1988) was a native New Yorker born in the Bronx and educated at the State University of New York (SUNY) at Binghamton. In 1971, Arnie Zane and Bill T. Jones began their long collaboration in choreography and in 1973 formed the American Dance Asylum in Binghamton with Lois Welk. Mr. Zane’s first recognition in the arts came as... a photographer when he received a Creative Artists Public Service (CAPS) Fellowship in 1973. Mr. Zane was the recipient of a second CAPS Fellowship in 1981 for choreography, as well as two Choreographic Fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts (1983 and 1984). In 1980, Mr. Zane was co-recipient, with Bill T. Jones, of the German Critics Award for his work, Blauevelt Mountain. Rotary Action, a duet with Mr. Jones, was filmed for television, co-produced by WGBH-TV Boston and Channel 4 in London.

The Nutcracker

Act I
It is Christmas Eve, a night of magic, when anything can happen. The newly fallen snow glistens on the rooftops and excitement is in the air. Herr Drosselmeyer, a very old friend of the Stahlbaum family, passes by their house and leaves an early present for the family. Inside the Stahlbaum house, Clara and Fritz wait as their family makes sure everything is ready for that evening’s grand party. The guests arrive and the fun begins. Of course, there is lots of dancing and many presents.

When Herr Drosselmeyer, who is also Clara’s godfather, comes to the house, magical things always happen. Every year he creates delightful toys unlike anything else in the world. This year he has some very special surprises for Clara and her family. Although Clara loves the lifelike Spanish doll, and Fritz the exciting Chinese doll, they cannot be left for the children to play with. Instead, Drosselmeyer has another very special and unusual gift, a remarkable nutcracker that he gives to Clara. Angered that he too cannot crack nuts with his teeth, Fritz regrettably breaks the nutcracker. Drosselmeyer is quick to repair the nutcracker for Clara, but Fritz is still looking for trouble and finds a rat with which to tease Clara.

Once all the guests leave the party, the Stahlbaums go to bed. Clara is awakened by a strange sound. Worried that her nutcracker is alone downstairs, she goes to find him and falls asleep on the couch. Suddenly, mice surround her. Drosselmeyer is acting very strangely and her nightmare continues as the whole house transforms around her. A menacing Mouse King orders his minions to steal the nutcracker from Clara. The Spanish and Chinese dolls come to help her, but the marauding mice carry them off. Just when Clara thinks all is lost, her nutcracker suddenly comes to life and temporarily scares the mice away. A huge battle between the toy soldiers and the mice follows. The Mouse King is about to defeat the nutcracker, but Clara saves the day. She discovers that by defeating the Mouse King, she has freed the Prince, who had been trapped in the nutcracker, and she understands that Drosselmeyer had a purpose in all the strange things he had done that night. Clara and her Prince pass through a wondrous snowy land as they begin their journey together to his home in the land of the Sugar Plum Fairy.

Act II
News that the Prince is finally returning home reaches the land of the Sugar Plum Fairy, where people from all corners of the world – and the world of the imagination – come to greet Clara and her Nutcracker Prince. After hearing the story of Clara rescuing the Prince, the Sugar Plum Fairy arranges a grand celebration in Clara’s honor, filled with many wondrous surprises, including being reunited with the Spanish doll. “This must be what it’s like,” Clara thinks, “to be inside one of Godfather’s inventions.”

Sadly, the night comes to an end. Even though Clara wants to stay, it is time to leave this enchanted land. Like a wonderful dream, this magical night will stay with her forever.

Rackham Choir
Too Hot To Handel Orchestra
With the Too Hot Trio:
Marion Hayden, David Taylor and Alvin Waddles

Lighting Design: Kendall Smith
Stage Manager: Ellen Peck

Original Concept by Marin Alsop
Co-arranged and orchestrated by Bob Christianson and Gary Anderson

Too Hot To Handel is a co-production of Rackham Choir and the Detroit Opera House

The Concordia Orchestra of New York City commissioned Too Hot To Handel in 1993, from arrangers Bob Christianson and Gary Anderson. Since the first performance at Lincoln Center, crowds have smiled, cheered and danced in their seats (and sometimes in the aisles!). Too Hot captures the essential core of Handel’s famous masterwork and reinterprets it with chords of rhythm and blues, jazz and gospel. The end result? A dynamic and uplifting celebration that must be experienced. Simply put: Too Hot To Handel is Messiah recreated.

Music on loan from the archives of the Concordia Orchestra, Marin Alsop, founding music director and conductor.

PART I
Sinfony
Comfort ye
Every valley
And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed
Thus saith the Lord
But who may abide the day of His coming
And He shall purify
Behold, a virgin shall conceive
O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion
For behold, darkness shall cover the earth
The people that walked in darkness
For unto us a child is born
There were shepherds abiding in the field
And suddenly there was the angel
Glory to God

Intermission

Part II
Rejoice greatly
Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened
He shall feed his flock
His yoke is easy
Behold the Lamb of God
Surely He hath borne our griefs
All we like sheep have gone astray
Behold, I tell you a mystery
The trumpet shall sound
The Lord gave the word
Why do the nations so furiously rage
Hallelujah!

Ensuring the Future

Imagine a gift that outlives you, allowing future generations to experience and enjoy the world of opera and dance. That’s the goal of the Avanti Society, Michigan Opera Theatre’s Planned Gift Recognition Program.

The Italian word ‘avanti’ means “ahead,” or “forward.” The Avanti Society at Michigan Opera Theatre represents a designated group of friends of Michigan Opera Theatre who have made plans to include the organization in their estate plans – whether by will, trust, insurance, or life income arrangement. Membership in the Avanti Society is open to all.

In thanks for their generous support, Avanti Society members are given special benefits and recognition for their heartfelt commitment to Michigan Opera Theatre.

Avanti Society Members are Recognized:
In “Bravo” opera and dance program books and the Annual Report.

Avanti Society Members are Invited:
To an exclusive annual Avanti Society event, previews and other special events. Michigan Opera Theatre is honored that so many patrons have chosen to declare their membership in the Avanti Society and designed a small lapel pin for members to wear proudly at Michigan Opera Theatre events.

AN AVANTI FOR TOMORROW
The growth of Michigan Opera Theatre’s permanent Endowment Fund ensures the growth and future vitality of one of the region’s greatest cultural assets. You are invited to create your own legacy – your Avanti – through Michigan Opera Theatre.

To make your gift, contact Marcy Murchison, Major Gifts Officer, at 313.237.3416 or mmurchison@motopera.org.

AVANTI SOCIETY MEMBERS
In recognition of their foresight and commitment, Michigan Opera Theatre profoundly thanks and recognizes the membership of the Avanti Society.

Greetings from the MOT Volunteer Association.

I have been a music lover for many years and Michigan Opera Theatre is very important to me. Our MOTVA volunteers provide the company a tremendous level of support. We have over 700 members who serve as ushers, tour guides, and Boutique volunteers. Our Divas and Divos provide artist hospitality, and the Opera League and Dance Council members host parties to celebrate events such as opening night performances. Last year our members logged almost 20,000 volunteer hours. Bravi!

If you are hearing about our volunteer programs for the first time and you would be interested in joining us, please give us a call. Volunteering is a great way to meet other interesting and involved patrons. Membership information is located on the MOTVA web page at MichiganOpera.org/working-with-us/volunteer/ or call Colin Knapp at (313) 965-4271. Colin will be happy to speak with you and connect you with a volunteer opportunity to meet your needs.

I offer my sincere thanks to all of our current volunteers. You are THE BEST!

Sincerely,

MASTER CLASSES OFFER LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

Learn from professional dancers when they come to Detroit to perform on the Detroit Opera House stage! This is a great opportunity for intermediate to advanced level dancers looking to learn from the professionals. Classes include Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company, BalletMet and Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, as well as a special guest star in February. Class styles and age restrictions vary from company to company. Information is posted on the Michigan Opera Theatre website.

All classes are open to the public and free with a corresponding ticket stub or $25 without a ticket stub. Classes take place in the Margo V. Cohen Center for Dance in the Ford Center for Learning at the Detroit Opera House. Pre-registration is required due to space limitations.

For information and to register, visit www.MichiganOpera.org/learning/dance-education.

ENJOY DANCE FILMS, REFRESHMENTS AND DISCUSSION!

Dance lovers from all over Detroit come together for dance films, food, drink and discussion on Tuesday evenings. The monthly Dance Film Series continues for its 12th season with The Taming of the Shrew performed by the Bolshoi Ballet on Tuesday, November 13 at 7 p.m.

All dance films take place at the Detroit Opera House in the Ford Center for Learning in the Chrysler Black Box Theatre. A $10 donation is payable at the door, and this includes refreshments. No reservations are required. For more information call 313-237-3251 or go to www.MichiganOpera.org/learning/dance-film-series.

AUDITIONS AND OPPORTUNITIES

The Detroit Opera House is a stop for many major dance companies and programs on their nationwide audition tours, providing additional professional training and opportunities for young dancers. Auditions for summer intensives, including companies like Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre School, artÉmotion and BalletMet, details are posted online at www.michiganopera.org/working-with-us/dance-auditions/. Auditions will be held in early 2019.

Remembering William “Bill” Brooks, Michigan Opera Theatre Trustee 1995-2018

Appointed as a Michigan Opera Theatre Trustee in 1995, Detroit businessman and civic leader William “Bill” Brooks was a devoted supporter of MOT for more than 23 years. With his wife Elizabeth “Betty” Brooks, an MOT Board Member, the couple has been active with the Michigan Opera Theatre Volunteer Association, Opera Balls and dance committees. The Brooks were also instrumental in generating financial support for MOT’s two world premieres: 2005’s Margaret Garner, composed by Richard Danielpour with libretto by Toni Morrison, and 2007’s Cyrano, composed by MOT Founder David DiChiera with libretto by Bernard Uzan. The MOT Board of Directors, Trustees, Volunteers and Staff extend our sympathy to Betty Brooks.
